

Dougos, Methystanes 2006

(92)

A rare unclassified Rapsani as Dougos winery started officially to produce Rapsani wines in 2008, this all about evolution on the nose with earth and leather along with tar and dried cherries. Seems to be a little downhill but then palate followed juicy, harmonious, very stylish and pure. Lovely to drink it now it will keep for the next 2-3 years at least.
