Estate Argyros 2015

(93)

The flagship Santorini of Argyros Estate, (a more mineral unoaked version called Assyrtiko can also be found-though not so easily in its country of origin!), is consistently one of the best Greek whites. Produced from really old vines up to 150 years of age and matured in 20% 500 lts French oak it manages to combine an intense ripe stone fruit character with an added layer from oak maturation. Lots of minerality and precision with a long lasting finish. A beauty.
